

React project:

Use your NodeJS project as backend to the website

General:

- 1) Responsive
- 2) Use protected routes
- 3) Dark / light themes should be in navbar
- 4) In navbar should be filter that will filter by name the products
- 5) Every user input should be validated
 - a. Display correct error msgs
- 6) Don't forget that use can be blocked so he can't be logged in to the system
 - a. Display correct error msg
- 7) Use react optimizations wisely (if needed)
- 8) No console logs
- 9) No uncaught errors
- 10) Clean code, camelCase
- 11) Display the products in the following display mode
 - a. List
 - b. Gallery – card grid
- 12) Split to components
- 13) Crud on products

Pages:

- 1) About us: explain in this page what this project all about
- 2) 404
- 3) Invalid right – this page will be displayed if use try to access page that he does not allow to
- 4) Register
- 5) Login
- 6) Reset password
- 7) Profile – edit user data
- 8) Admin panel:
 - a. in this page the admin can do crud on users
 - b. define new admins
- 9) Other pages that need to be in order to create the front end of the system